A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY FOR SANSKRIT STUDENTS.

Applications are invited for admission to the Darsanacharya course on Kashmira Saiva Sastra. It is a three years degree course and the basic works on all the prominent schools of Indian philosophy shall be taught in addition to all the important works on the Saivism of Kashmir during the course. Students shall be provided with a scholarship of Rs. 100, of which Rs. 20 shall be paid in cash and Rs. 80 shall be spent on free board, lodging, electric light, etc.

Candidates who must have passed either shastri Examination or M. A. Examination in Sanskrit of any university, or any other examination equal in status to either of these two examinations, shall be eligible for admission to the course.

The classes shall start from September 1967 and applications for admission, accompanied by certificates regarding i) qualifications, ii) character and iii) age, should reach the undersigned upto the end of August 1967.

Managing Officer,
Institute of Kashmir Saivism,
Gupta Ganga, Nishat Bagh,
Srinagar.

Dated 27 - 7 - 1967